HIS NERVE

Never Failed Him.

New York Process Server
Was Game.

Not Frightened by Small-pox Card.

Had Summons For Miss Marie Rose Penfield.

She is Well Known to Akron Society People.

Miss Marie Rose Penfield, who plays such an important part in the following story is well known in Akron, where she has frequently visited.

She is related to the Selberling family and many Akron people have met her while she was a guest in this city.
The article, which was printed in the New York Times, reads:

There is one young process server in New York who is not afraid of smallpox. The story of his experience with that disease is told in the papers on file in the City Court, in which Dr. Wellslake D. Morse sues Miss Marie Rose Penfield, said to be a relative of President McKinley, for a dental bill amounting to $197.85. The dentist obtained judgment by default.

The dentist placed the case in the hands of Lawyer B. W. B. Brown, and he started an action in the Municipal Court. Miss Penfield is the daughter of Frank H. Penfield of Cleveland, O., who is said to be wealthy. She has been living in this city with her grandmother, Mrs. M. Penfield Pierson, at 123 West Eighty-ninth st. The lawyer could not get service on her in the action in the Municipal court, so he started a new action in the City court.
All efforts failed as far as serving her with the summons and complaints were concerned. Finally Mr. Brown engaged Meyer Phillips, a young process server. In his affidavit Phillips says that the fourth time he went to the house a servant reported that Miss Penfield was ill.

"I must see her," replied Phillips.
"Well, she has the smallpox, and if you want to take the chance of getting the disease you can go to her room," said the servant.

"All right," said Phillips, and up stairs he went. He found Miss Pen-field in her room, and served the papers. As yet he has not shown any signs of having smallpox, and the case of Miss Penfield has not been reported to the Health department.

POCKETBOOK

Found in Letterbox by Mail Carrier.

A pocketbook, containing a tax receipt, was found in the letter box at the corner of Main and Mill sts., Wednesday. It was returned to Postmaster Ebricht. He is holding it until it is called for by the owner. The receipt is made out in the name of Isaac Myers, who is believed to reside at Mogadore. It is probable that the pocketbook was stolen, the contents taken and that the thief then dropped it in the letter box.

Workhouse Sentences
Imposed Thursday.

Wm. Phelps Neglected to Provide For His Three Children—Police Court.

Wm. Phelps, who was arrested Wednesday upon complaint of his wife, was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 90 days in the workhouse in Police Court Thursday morning, on a charge of non support of his three little children.

According to his wife's testimony, Phelps left her two years ago. Since that time he has not contributed a cent to his family's support. She recently secured a divorce from her husband and he was ordered to pay a certain amount each week to the support of the children. Phelps when he separated from his wife left Akron and his whereabouts could not be learned by the wife until she was informed by a friend that he was in South Akron. She at once signed an affidavit for his arrest. Mayor Young informed him, after sentence had been imposed that it would be suspended on condition that Phelps furnish $500 bond and pay $5 a week to his children's support.

Mike Beck, charged with intoxication and creating a disturbance at his home on Christmas day, pleaded guilty. He was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse.

James Butler, charged with intoxication pleaded guilty. He was fined $5 and costs and 30 days in the workhouse.

Stan A. Loeski Zachers, charged with disorderly conduct, pleaded not guilty.
Zachers resides on North Howard st. and it is alleged he abused his family.
The case was continued until Friday morning.

Jesse Foster, Ed Coxey and John McGuire were fined $2 and costs each for intoxication. James Coburn was fined $3 and costs on the same charge.

The employees of J. K. Williams' machine shop showed their appreciation of the many kindnesses extended to them by their employer during the year by presenting him with a splendid leather chair. Mr. Williams has been ill for some time at his home on Kirkwood st. It will be good news to his many friends to learn that he is rapidly recovering his health.

The Christmas exercises of Trinity Reformed Sunday school were held Tuesday evening in the church. The decorations were not elaborate, though tasteful and appropriate. There was a tree to please the children. The singing was done mainly by the choir, but the speeches were made by the little folks.
All the members of the school received the usual treat. The offering, supplimented by an appropriation from the treasury, was devoted to the Orphans' Home at Butler, Pa.

COLUMBUS PAPER

Charges Gen. Dick With Nepotism—Alleged Facts.

Columbus, O., Dec. 27.—(Sp.)—An afternoon paper publishes a story charging Congressman Dick with nepotism.

The article says Leslie C. Smith, appointed to the position of statistical clerk under Secretary of State-elect Laylin from Cleveland, is a near relative of Gen. Dick, who dictated the selection.

The young man is said to be the son of a Los Angeles, Cal., fruit grower, and it is also said that he never voted in Ohio except at the election last November. Mr. Smith was a clerk in Republican State headquarters during the recent campaign.

Over-Work Weakens
Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.
The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood.
If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.
Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping blood, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for
